About the Artist. Photo by David Paul Bayles: Biography "The Vibrant One: Carolee Clark" by Mj DeArmitt Style and technique are two important components to an artist. Every artist seeks time to develop her craft and create a unified body of work. An artist's style can be as unique as her signature, and is often dependent on her medium. Artist Carolee Clark is an exception to this rule.

The Nash Metropolitan was an American automobile that was sold from 1953 to 1961.. It conforms to two classes of vehicle: economy car and subcompact car. In today's terminology the Metropolitan is a "subcompact", but this category had not yet come into use when the car was made. At that time, it was variously categorized, for example as a "small automobile" as well as an "economy car".
