NOTHING In more pedestrian trims (SR/SR5), I think there may be *some* potential to slightly decrease the resale value compared to automatics. But for a TRD Pro, I really think it will have no affect on resale, and if anything, may INCREASE its value in the future, since gearheads/enthusiasts would prefer a manual over an auto.

Automatic: An automatic movement requires the same artful execution to create and contains virtually all of the same components as a mechanical movement - but with one notable addition. An automatic movement relies on the motion of the wearer's arm to spin an off-balanced weight called the rotor. A collection of gears inside the case utilizes the movement of the rotor to automatically wind the ...
